CURRENT VACANCY

Chef De Partie

About The Role

Would you like to embark upon a new challenge? In preparation for re-opening our successful and resilient business we are currently recruiting a passionate and focused Chef to join our friendly and professional kitchen team.

You should have the ability to run and organise a busy service section and have previous experience in this role or similar. Experience or training across all kitchen sections is essential. A strong ability for self-management and ambition to progress in your career will stand you in great stead for this role. Attention to detail and a hardworking, team player style mentality is essential within this business. We pride ourselves on being a modern, progressive and pro-active business filled with good people who take pride in all that they do. If this is you we would love to hear from you.

About Our Business

At Inverkip Hotel we provide industry leading Scottish hospitality in Inverkip village. We offer Accommodation, Breakfast, Morning Coffee, Lunch, Dinner and Drinks. Our community is at the centre of everything we do. We are a business that villagers are proud to call 'their local' and those from afar travel specially to receive our hospitality.

Please take the time to check out our social media platforms as this will give you an idea of who we are and what we do.
