CURRENT VACANCY

Experienced Waiter / Waitress

About The Role

Do you want to work with a resilient, creative and modern hospitality business? We are currently looking for two passionate and ambitious individuals to join our friendly and professional restaurant team. This is an exciting opportunity for someone who wishes to progress in their career and join a growing team of hospitality professionals. Experience of waiting, barista and barwork is essential for this role.

You should have the ability to warmly welcome, host, run a section independently, work under pressure in a service based environment and follow basic service standards in all aspects of your work. Specific areas of expertise are preferable but not essential: such as drinks knowledge/ running events/ confidence with ResDiary or similar.

If this sounds like you or you think you have the attributes of a great team member then please get in touch.

About Our Business

At Inverkip Hotel we provide industry leading Scottish hospitality in Inverkip village. We offer Accommodation, Breakfast, Morning Coffee, Lunch, Dinner and Drinks. Our community is at the centre of everything we do. We are a business that villagers are proud to call 'their local' and those from afar travel specially to receive our hospitality.

Please engage with our social media to see who we are and what we do.
