CURRENT VACANCY

Supervisor

About The Role

Do you have experience and wish to further your hospitality career in a developing business? In preparation for re-opening our resilient and successful business we are currently recruiting. We are looking for a passionate and ambitious Supervisor to join our friendly and professional restaurant team. This is an exciting opportunity for someone who wishes to progress in their career.

You should have the ability to host a room, setting the tone for a relaxed yet professional style of service. We are looking for a team leader who can host our services and direct the team to provide warm, welcoming and exceptional hospitality to our guests. Significant experience of waiting, barista and barwork is essential for this role. Experience of liaising with other departments is also essential.

The role requires high standards, organisation, initiative, independent thinking and having an approachable and nurturing manner. There will be opportunity for you to bring creativity and development to the role to continually improve our offering.
